

THE PERRINS' RAINY PASS LODGE, L.L.C.

PO Box 221267 ANCHORAGE, ALASKA 99522

907-230-6093 cell - 907-770-6304 lodge

Email: theperrins@rainypasslodge.net

GUIDE – OUTFITTER CONTRACT

Steven H. Perrins Master guide #123 dba The Perrins' Rainy Pass Lodge and Kodiak Safaris enter into the following agreement to conduct guide services with _____ (client). Due to the overlapping of guide use areas at times Hunt Records may also be signed by Buckey Winkley registered guide #34 or Steven Perrins II registered guide #1295

The primary animal to be hunted is _____ and other animals that may be taken during this hunt are _____. This hunt is for _____ days to be conducted from _____ to _____. Number of days hunting each species is not guaranteed due to weather.

Trophy fees are as follows: _____.

A hunter preservation fee of $150 is due with 1st payment.

The cost of this hunt is $_____ and is to be paid as follows _____.

Client is responsible for: Transportation to Anchorage, Alaska for Rainy Pass Lodge hunts and the town of Kodiak for Kodiak hunts, Hunting license and big game tag fees, shipping of trophies, personal hunting gear and firearms, Any expenses while in town prior to arrival at lodge or camp and after return to town no matter what date, personal liquor and gratuities are at your option. Transportation to the field will be arranged by the guide/outfitter however, charter fees round trip to lodge/camp are subject to change but at this time are as follows: _____.

Services include: Guided hunt conducted with one guide per _____ client(s). Meals and lodging while at the lodge or in camps, field preparation of trophies and transportation of trophies back to Anchorage / Kodiak. Field recovery of meat will be done according to state law however the cost of shipping and or preparation of meat for clients to take home will be the client's responsibility. The registered guide-outfitter is responsible for any and all state, federal or private land use fees unless otherwise agreed to.

Weather delays and charter schedules may cause actual travel to lodge/camp or return from lodge/camp to be delayed and could shorten the time you are in the field. This is a risk involved in booking this hunt in Alaska and no compensation for shortened hunts, loss of hunting days, early success, charter delays or early departure is made as well as no extra cost is to be charged for longer stays if weather or scheduling delays keep the client in the field longer than contracted for.

In the event of cancellation by the client more than 270 days prior to the start of their hunt, payments shall be transferred to another hunt with us, or may be transferred to another mutually acceptable hunter secured by you. In the event of a cancellation less than 270 days prior to their hunt, all funds shall be forfeited unless transferred to a mutually acceptable hunter secured by you. In the event we must cancel a hunt, due to a failure on our part, the monies paid shall be returned, unless mutually agreed parties elect to apply it to another hunt with us.

Any claim or dispute arising out of services provided by or through The Perrins' Rainy Pass Lodge LLC shall be governed by Alaska law and litigated in the superior court for the state of Alaska at Anchorage, Alaska

Steven H. Perrins - Master Guide #123

Alaska state law (AS 08.54.680 and 12 AAC 75.260) requires a big game Registered Guide-Outfitter to provide a written contract to document services being provided and items for which the client is responsible. The above items are the required items to be detailed in contract.

Rev 2018